

July 7, 1976

STASER:

Have Wade stick the q&a's on SALT that George Brown got in his briefing book for me in preparation for the testimony.

This point paper on personnel turbulence is not adequate I guess we had better get a meeting with the Service Chiefs and the Chiefs so we can discuss this subject and I can get my views across and then they can get together and come back to me with something. We ought to have Man R A there.

