

July 7, 1976

ALAN:

Make sure that the White House has arranged now that whenever I call the President, I can get right through so we don't have those kinds of delays like we had that night on Lebanon. Someone over there has to notify the White House operators secure phone and regular phone that when I call, I can get through.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Joe", with a horizontal line drawn underneath it.