

July 2, 1976

STASER:

SEE ME about my interest in having a rule established for the Defense Department that civilian and military employees who are stationed overseas on permanent change of stations will in fact take a course in the language of the country.

I think Hoffman started to do it and I personally believe that it is terribly important and would like to make it defense-wide.

*7/2 Tasked Ahearne to give me statistics and
summary of standards
now in effect.*

Discussed at AFPC on 7/15

