MEMORANDUM

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY

SUBJECT: Bicentennial Corridor Dedication, May 7, 1976, 11:00 a.m.

I. PURPOSE

This is to advise the office of the Bicentennial Corridor Dedication and to outline your personal involvement in the ceremony.

II. ASSIGNMENT

You have agreed to officiate during the Bicentennial Corridor and provide remarks at 11:00 a.m., Friday, May 7.

The corridor honors all military and civilian men and women who have contributed to the development of our nation for the past 200 years. The corridor contains some of the most important military history and is located on the third floor, A wing, between Corridors I and II. The events were accompanied by the following military and DOD-employed civilian officers:

- Major Stephen Lee Justice, USAF
- Technical Sergeant Jim B. Johnston, USAF
- Sergeant First Class Michael P. Pugh, USAF
- Technical Sergeant George W. Day, USAF
- Staff Sergeant Paul A. Lloyd, USAF
- Mr. John Landry
- Mr. Franklin F. Adams
- Mr. William J. Sarno, Jr.

After the dedication ceremony, at 12:00 p.m., you will present the staff with a gift certificate for their services. Don't forget to coordinate with the personal office, if additional staff necessary. Following these responsibilities, the staff and their guests will be escorted to the corridor.
