STASER:

When I meet with the three service secretaries or the chiefs next time, I want to talk about lengthening tours for officers to cut down on turbulence and improve output and increase accountability. Talk to Brehm and give me some statistics on what they have been and I'd like to figure maybe some way any tour less than three years is an exception that has to be approved up the line. Any tour shorter than three years.

5/5 Tasked Ahearne.
